

1. No error checking system
2. The grade system cannot input the grades directly in it. The user needs to type by themselves to input the grades.
3. The input method and the output method are in the same place.
4. The main class is finished one time. If I want to run it again, I will need to press the run button by myself.
5. It doesn't have test case.